

EXAMPLE SEARCH: FINDING MIDUS ARTICLES BY TOPIC & YEAR

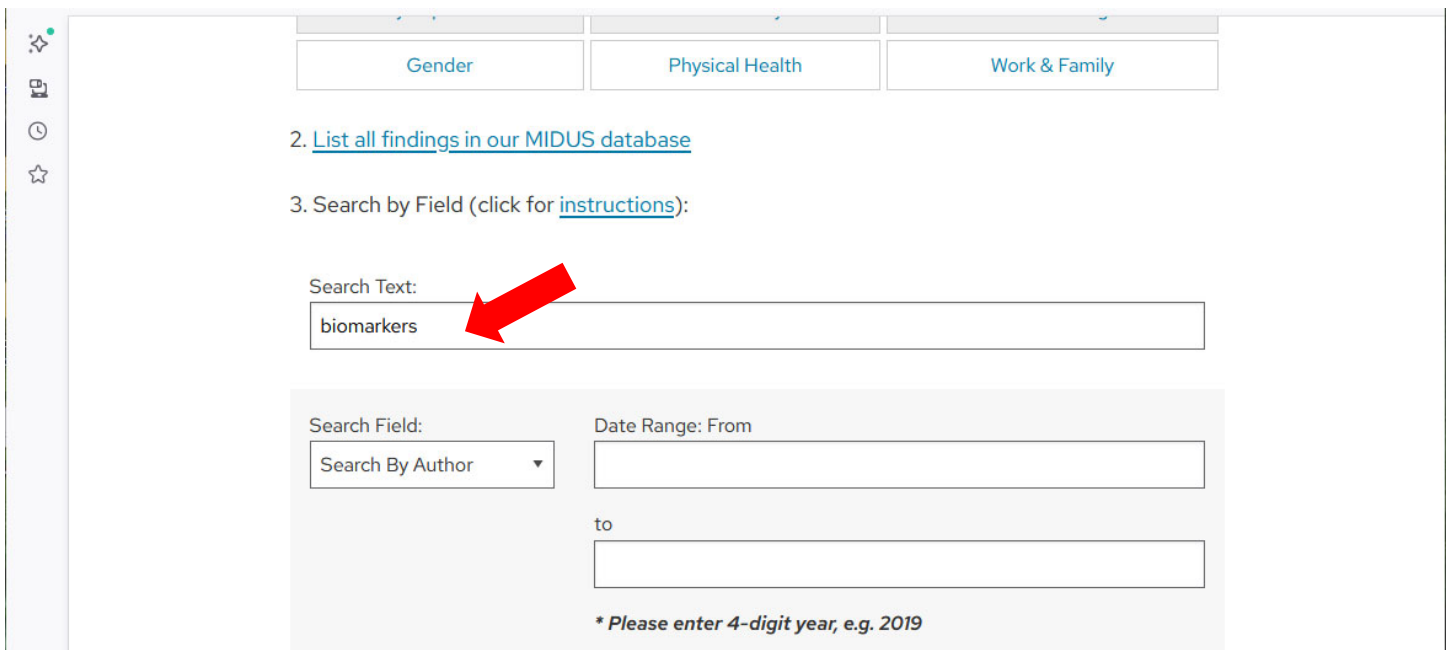

Consider that you want to do a search within the “Biomarkers” topic category and that you want to restrict the time period to 2023-2025. Here is how that search can be conducted:

1. Go to: https://midus.wisc.edu/?page_id=2203

The screen will look like this:

2. Scroll down to #3 “Search by Field” and enter “biomarkers” in the “Search Text” Field (see arrow). Note that the only searchable topics are those that appear in the chart at the top of the page.

3. Choose "Search by Topic" from the drop down menu options in "Search Field" (see arrow).

3. Search by Field (click for instructions):

Search Text:
biomarkers

Search Field: Search By Topic

Date Range: From

to

 Please enter 4-digit year, e.g. 2019*

Entries Per Page : 20

Order Results By: Date

4. In the "Date Range" field, enter the years you want to search for and click on the "Submit Query" button (see arrows):

3. Search by Field (click for instructions):

Search Text:
biomarkers

Search Field: Search By Topic

Date Range: From

to

 Please enter 4-digit year, e.g. 2019*

Entries Per Page : 20

5. Scroll down to see the results at the bottom of the screen that comes up (see arrow):
